INTRO- DUCTION

The European Graduate School EGS is a private University and a European Union accredited Institution of Higher Education by the National Commission for Further and Higher Education, Malta. EGS is governed by the non-profit foundation EGSF, co-founded by the state of Wallis, the University's residence town of Saas-Fee and the EGIS Foundation in Zurich.

Founded in 1994, EGS provides degree programs and continuing education for practicing professionals on a graduate and post-graduate level. Entrance requirements include a Bachelors degree or an equivalency that must be approved by a qualifying board. EGS offers an access procedure in which students who have not yet achieved the Bachelors degree may qualify for matriculation to the University. Entrance to the doctoral program requires a Masters degree.

EGS acknowledges credits from Cooperating Universities, Colleges and contracted module providers under the terms of the Bologna Educational Treaty. Curriculum compatibility and quality control is secured through the academic advisory board and follows the standards for International Universities.

The University offers programs in the following fields of research and education:

DIVISION OF ARTS, HEALTH AND SOCIETY

- Expressive Arts Therapy Masters Program with a Minor in Psychology and concentrations in various Arts disciplines
- Expressive Arts Coaching and Consulting Masters Program with the option of a concentration in education and special education
- Expressive Arts Conflict Transformation and Peacebuilding Masters Program
- Advanced Post-Graduate Certificate Program (CAGS) in Expressive Arts: Therapy, Coaching and Consulting, Education and Social Change
- Doctoral Program in Expressive Arts: Therapy, Coaching and Consulting, Education and Social Change,

DIVISION OF PHILOSOPHY, ART AND CRITICAL THOUGHT

- MA and PhD Programs in Philosophy, Art, and Social Thought
- MA and PhD Programs in Literary, Musical and Visual Thought

Aristotle speaks of three kinds of knowing: Theoria (knowing by observing), Praxis (knowing by doing), Poiesis (knowing by making). Our programs seek to restore confidence in Poiesis, the knowing that comes from the human capacity to shape both self and world. Training and research at EGS are based on that capacity and encourage students to take responsibility for shaping their development as learners.

Modern life demands new ways for studies and research.

EGS is a non-profit organization that fulfills its requirements without state subsidies. EGS works in an interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary way and supports the networking with other Universities and Institutes aiming to gain synergy through joint instructional and research activities. EGS is committed to fundamental research in Health Sector, Psychotherapy, Supervision, Coaching, Education, Conflict-Transformation and Peacebuilding and is active in research concerning effectiveness and long-term consequences in the use of the arts in helping relationships. EGS sets high ethical standards and works with scientific models, artistic media, experiential learning and other established methods of education.

Being with the Arts is our way of being in the world.

EGS is closely connected to the phenomenological human sciences and to an anthropological view of the human being as shaping the world in which he or she lives. We are committed to the spirit of the Liberal Arts and consider Art, Philosophy and Science as essentially related to each other. The various facets of human existence are connected in the creative act. At EGS, we conceive of the human being as part of a broader totality who, in his/her "being in the world," carries not only an individual and social responsibility, but also an ecological one. We at EGS view the human being as a being having language who, in opening to the "here and now" through the artistic act, through play and philosophical thinking, finds the possibility to constructively shape life in all its multiplicity.

FACULTY

The format of a Graduate School for Professionals with training in Intensive Summer Seminars has the advantage that it can commit a Faculty of excellent reputation who are internationally engaged leaders or founders in their field.

Faculty members come from transdisciplinary practices that cross institutional boundaries. They advocate investigative learning and creative inquiry that embrace the stratified complexity of the concrete challenges we face today. They are familiar with thinking that expands the horizon of established frameworks and creates networks between disciplines and institutions in both the private and public sector. Faculty that have joined EGS are enthusiastic about projects that engage the typical adult learner. They appreciate the benefit of the innovative learning that goes on between Faculty, Students and Participants in continuing projects. Not all Faculty on this list will be teaching each summer.

FACULTY MEMBERS

Markus Alexander, PhD

is the Director of the World Arts Organization in Alberta, Canada. She is also a registered Psychotherapist, Child Psychotherapist and Supervisor, with her own private practice and also works in different settings with adults and children. Enjoying every aspect of her work, her main passion at the moment is working with children, integrating the use of the Expressive Arts in her work to help them make more sense of their little lives. Over the last several years she has worked hard to raise awareness of the Expressive Arts and its impact within the therapeutic field and in the field of education to the Maltese Community. She has also introduced the Expressive Arts in a school setting, running various projects with children.

ARTIST IN RESIDENCE

Elizabeth McKim, MA, Poet Laureate EGS

is an engaging poet-performer and teacher, well-known to Boston audiences and students of all ages. She works out of the oral tradition of song, story, and poem. She has published four books of poetry and has worked with countless children and teachers throughout the USA and internationally. She is Poet Laureate at EGS and an adjunct Faculty member at Lesley University in the Department of Creative Arts in Learning.

FINANCIAL AID

The different kinds of financial aid a student is able to receive during their studies at EGS are outlined below. Application deadline for all requests is April 30, 2017. The distribution of financial aid depends on available funds. Only written requests with the proper submitted documentation will be taken into consideration.

DEFERRED PAYMENT-PLAN

Students have to send a written request to the EGS office in Leuk, when registering for Summer School. The request must also indicate the amount and the dates when the installments are to be paid.

The Deferred Payment-Plan has to conform to the following schedule:

1st installment upon registration - has to cover 50% of the tuition

Upon check-in in Saas Fee, the remaining payment for tuition can be divided in two installments, payable at the latest by December 31st of the academic year the student is registered for Summer School.

Exceptions to this plan are only possible if the Cooperating University, the College, or the contracted Module Provider, if any, guarantees payments in case the balance is in default. However there cannot be more than four installments, the latest by December 31st of the academic year. If the installments are paid by credit card, the expenses according to the Credit Card Center in Switzerland are CHF 50.- per installment. These expenses will be charged for each installment that is being paid by credit card. Therefore we suggest strongly that you make monthly payments to the Credit Card Center and not through EGS.

WORKSTUDY FOR SUMMER SCHOOL 2017

The EGS is looking for student support during the two 2017 Summer School sessions. EGS offers a Workstudy Program designed for students able to demonstrate financial need who are willing to take on responsibility for certain tasks during their Summer School session. This program offers financial compensation appropriate to the specific task demands. Students interested in participating in the EGS Workstudy Program are required to have a confirmed registration for one of the two 2017 Summer School sessions.

Applications must include the following information: declaration of financial need, interest and competence in one or more of the Workstudy fields, confirmation of registration, and a contact address including e-mail.

All Workstudy Students are required to attend the Set-up Meeting on the day before the Session begins:

1. period: June 12, 2017, 1.30-3.30 PM

2. period: July 10, 2017, 1.30-3.30 PM

and to remain until all duties are successfully completed.

If you cannot attend this meeting or cannot stay until your duties are completed, please do not apply for a Workstudy position.

Application deadline is April 30, 2017. All Workstudy positions are on a first-come, first- served basis available. Applications should be sent by postal mail, email or fax directly to the office of the European Graduate School, Alter Kehr 20, CH-3953 Leuk-Stadt, Switzerland.

The Workstudy form can be downloaded from our website
www.expressivearts.egs.edu/financial-aid

MATCHING SCHOLARSHIP

The European Graduate School has a Matching Scholarship Program. Students can apply for a scholarship where-by they actively participate in raising money, which will be matched to a determined limit by the European Graduate School. The idea of the program is that the student solicits funds from sources other than bank or scholarship associations. The sources can include family (excluding same household), friends, community associations, etc.

In order to apply for a matching scholarship, please fill out the application form and send it along with the appropriate documentation to the EGS office in Leuk, Switzerland. Application deadline is April 30, 2017. Matching Scholarships are on a first-come first-served basis. The distribution of Matching Scholarships depends on available funds. Applications should be sent by postal mail, email or fax directly to the office of the European Graduate School, Alter Kehr 20, CH-3953 Leuk-Stadt, Switzerland.

The Matching Scholarship form can be downloaded from our website
